IT'S LATER THAN YOU THINK!

CDS Members Urged To Make San Francisco Air Transportation And Dream Cruise Reservations Immediately

It is difficult for one to realize the importance of early reservations for transportation to the ADA convention in October and the post-convention Air Dream Cruises. Yet many have already experienced difficulty in procuring San Francisco Hotel reservations. And very few have made transportation plans to date.

As a service to CDS members and guests, the Air Dream Cruise Committee has blocked space on choice tourist flights to and from San Francisco not only to insure conventioners of air space but also to enable them to enjoy traveling as a group. Air space is limited and therefore members are requested to make their reservations early (even though tentative). First class flights are available upon request. Your committee also wishes to point out that for those who can afford the time, the CDS Rail Tour will offer the maximum of enjoyment and congenial companionship.

Below is a listing of schedules of the flights set aside for convention bound society members. The cost of these flights round trip is $152.00 plus $15.20 tax.

Air Dream Cruise Proving Popular

The committee is happy to report that reservations for the Cruises have been gratifying. Additional reservations are still available although the deadline is fast approaching. The popular Aloha Week pageants along with the Pan-Pacific entertainment programs promise to make this the most outstanding of all CDS post-convention tours. ## Television at the Midwinter Meeting

Occasionally a visitor to the Society's offices in the heat of midsummer is surprised to observe the great rush of activity ensuing relative to the Midwinter Meeting but a little reflection or explanation quickly illustrates the fact that while the weather is anything but wintry, summer is the time when the meeting is "put together." True enough the meeting is in February but copy for the program must be in the hands of the printer by the first of December and that means that a myriad of details, large and small but all important, have been arrived at through discussion, correspondence, endless shifting around and arrangement. So far, many of the committees have met at least once and the Program Committee has met four times. The Essay Committee has held part of its meetings as has the Limited Attendance Clinic Committee, the Projected Clinic Committee and others. The Midwinter Meeting Affairs Committee has been working on plans for the exhibit and on the exhibit prospectus as they go out early in September.

But a new feature of the meeting has engaged the interested attention of officers and committee personnel alike. Under the guidance of Dr. Robert I. Humphrey, the Television Program Committee is putting together a program to run for two solid days of televised lectures, clinics and demonstrations that will be shown on large screens in color.

These sessions will go on in the Grand Ballroom of the Conrad Hilton originating in an operating room and production center on the Fourth Floor of the hotel. There will be a large screen at each end of the ballroom so that each half of the audience will be able adequately to hear and see the clinician or operator at work. The new type of television cameras makes this type of presentation by far the most detailed teaching process yet available to the professions. A member of the committee who recently watched an operation performed on an eye where the organ filled an entire six-foot space on the screen said that until it is actually witnessed the magnification of intricate detail is incredible. For dental operations, especially in the front of the mouth, it is unsurpassed.

The extremely high cost of producing such a program, well into five figures, is being borne by the Smith, Kline and French Company of Philadelphia. This is not a firm that can look to any palpable gain business-wise from the dental profession and their willingness to undertake the expense in our behalf is generous and unselfish. We are especially indebted to our President Gus Solfronk and to Herman Wenger, General Chairman of the Midwinter Meeting, for so vividly depicting to SKF executives the scope and importance of the Midwinter Meeting that they became aware of its scientific

NEWS AND ANNOUNCEMENTS

GRATEFULLY ACKNOWLEDGED

Since the July 15th issue of the FORTNIGHTLY REVIEW hit the newsstands a large number of the admiring curious have queried us thus: If it wasn't Whit what writ it what wit did it?

Well, now, this honest peasant was considerable sot back to think that there remained any FORTNIGHTLY reader who wouldn't know that only Waska spells ode o-w-e-d but as the evidence runneth to the contrary leave us spell it out. The author of the Page Ten Panegyric was Dr. Romaine J. Waska, correspondent for the Englewood Branch and contributor to our Letters to A Member department.

And there is a bright thread of practicality running through this right about here as we disclaim on behalf of the author any smidgin of connection with Christopher Morley's aspect when he said, "Many have made more income out of parodying Walt Whitman than he ever made for himself." The FR pays nix for its kicks so for Waska no dime at no time. Tough. But seriously, thanks. It was a lot of work for you—a lot of fun to read and we're happy to say who wrote it. We ode it to you.

CHICAGO ACADEMY OF DENTAL PSYCHOSOMATICS

The Chicago Academy of Dental Psychosomatics will hold a regular meeting and installation of officers on Friday, September 9, in private dining room #2, in the Conrad Hilton Hotel.

The following officers and directors will be installed: Irving I. Secter, President; Maurice Altus, President-elect; Jaroslav Rund, Vice-president; Richard Scott, Treasurer; Norman K. Laird, Librarian—Directors: B. Howard Bartfield, for 3 years; Morris I. Gerry, for 2 years; James

D. Mershimer, Stanley Buckner, Wilson K. Fisher, for 1 year.

The guest speaker will be Raymond J. Corsini, Ph.D.; the subject of his discussion, "Hypnoanalysis in Criminosis." Dr. Corsini, after a broad educational background, has had experience as a psychologist in the prison systems of New York City and New York State, at San Quentin in California, and was supervising psychologist of the Wisconsin state prison system. He is the author of more than 40 articles and contributor to several books on prison psychology. He is at present counsellor for the Chicago community child guidance clinics and engaged in the private practice of counselling and psychotherapy.

Chicago Dental Society members and their ladies are cordially invited.

C.D.H.E. LOSES TWO EMPLOYEES

The Committee on Dental Health Education and the Society have lost two very dependable and loyal employees, Mrs. Nora Walter and Mrs. Evelyn Carnes. Mrs. Walter has moved to Clinton, Iowa, where the Walters have built a new home and Mrs. Carnes is now employed with the Theological Seminary of the University of Chicago.

Mrs. Walter has served the Committee on Dental Health Education since 1944 and had been associated with Mouth Hygiene Council from 1940 on. She is a graduate dental hygienist from Northwestern University School of Dentistry. Her background eminently qualified her for the outstanding service she has rendered to the Society. She had as her responsibility the Dental Health Program outside the Chicago City limits in Cook, Dupage, and Lake Counties. Through her work with district school boards, school

EXPENSIVE ECONOMY

At a recent meeting of the Board of Directors of the Society it was decided for reasons of economy not to replace Mrs. Nora Walter, who recently retired as Supervisor of that part of the Society's Dental Health Education program which it conducts outside of Chicago, in Cook, Lake and DuPage counties. This important phase of dentistry's public health work was begun over ten years ago. Last year as a result of this activity some 60,000 school-aged youngsters were dentally inspected and referred to their family dentists. In addition to the inspection program, motion pictures and slide films were shown to health classes and assemblies, while Dental Health Education kits provided health teachers with educational materials and instruction as to their use. Periodic health conferences with school supervisors and health nurses, and meetings with other community service groups, were held. During the course of the past ten years and activated by Mrs. Walter, this public service program has gained great momentum. It may be expected that this momentum will enable the project to continue for a short while but no matter how well organized it cannot for long continue without supervision, especially when its success depends on the smooth integration of the various groups concerned. Take, for example, the providing of dentists and hygienists for the inspection programs. Only with the Society acting as a clearing house and activator can professional help be provided. Certainly the school supervisor or nurse cannot make the contacts, nor can they be expected to schedule the examinations and provide the dental health materials. These are of utmost importance.

In the city of Chicago the Committee on Dental Health Education or its predecessor committees have been responsible for the establishment of the Cook County Childrens Dental Clinic; the revitalized Dental Division of the Department of Health; for the dental check-up system in the city high schools, especially for girl pupils; the pre-high school dental check-up; the examination of all pre-school children by the family dentist which becomes a part of the child's permanent health record, and the inauguration of the third and fifth grade dental inspection programs. Last year inspections were carried out in 158 Chicago schools by members of the dental section of the health department, by members of the Chicago Dental Society and student hygienists from Northwestern University Dental School. It was estimated that some 25,000 children were referred to the family dentist. Also, films were shown to student assemblies, health classes, service clubs, P.T.A.s and other organizations. The Dental Health Education Committee also provided the City Council with most of the data on fluoridation of the city water supply. In all, close to 300,000 pieces of dental health literature were distributed. And we have only scratched the surface.

From statistics kept over a period of years it has been found that about 52 per cent of the children inspected have the necessary dental work completed. From a purely materialistic standpoint, the financial return to the profession is at least 10 to 12-fold the cost of the entire Dental Health Education program. But even more important than this is our civic and moral responsibility to the public.

In this day of great social change we had better do our best to maintain our public relations on their highest plane if the private practice of dentistry is to continue as we know it today. We, as professional men, have a civic responsibility to the community in which we live and this Dental Health Education program offers each of us a real opportunity for service by being on an inspection team, by appearing on health programs, by being members of school health councils and, most important of all, by taking care of our fair share of the children referred to our offices. Unless we, as a profession, take a larger share of civic responsibility, unless we raise our sights above and beyond the cubicle that is our office, unless each of us makes some real honest effort to do our fair share in meeting this responsibility instead of letting our Officers or "George" do it, then we shall see government, social agencies, labor unions and other like organizations taking over our job.

Economy and efficient operation of the Society's affairs is a very worthwhile and business-like goal but let's not be penny wise and pound foolish. Let's not economize at the expense of one of the Society's oldest and most important activities—its Dental Health Education program. Let us restore the necessary funds and reestablish this activity so that the tremendous work which has been so well established may continue. Then we shall have fulfilled in part our responsibility as a health profession and served the public just a little better.

MISSION OF THE DENTIST

Few people realize the dentist's mission. Dentistry requires an exact acquaintance with, an experience in, the sciences and arts. It demands tact, intuition, and psychological finesse in order to acquire the art of persuasion and that moral authority necessary to anticipate and overcome those instinctive fears and hesitations on the part of the patient, more distracting than actual pain. You (dentists) need such patience, great physical resistance. You have to sustain a perpetual restraint on all your senses, your nerves are strained, your body, your mind, your will, and your sensitiveness. Always standing, often in a constrained attitude, your eyes are strained, both hands are busy; they must be supple with the fingers contracted in the manipulation of several instruments at one time, every movement impeded by reflexes and reactions on the part of the patient, which are not always possible to perceive. And all this time you must remain imperturbable, calm, courteous, gentle, and full of charity.

The least defect of any of the tissues of the body such as the mucous membrane of the mouth may have repercussions on the rest of the health of the whole. The mouth expresses character and feeling which is not expressed by forehead and eyes only, but also by the lower part of the face; a single fold of the lip, almost imperceptible, often may transform and make an infinite alteration in the expression of the face. Thus, there is a mysterious and surprising mission attaching to the care of the mouth.—Pope Pius XII, The Catholic Mind, September 1947, page 550.

Unity Between Craft and Profession*

Robert L. Kreiner, D.D.S., Chicago, Illinois**

That there should be unity between your Laboratory Association and the Dental Profession seems to be a subject for agreement for all parties concerned. However, without an understanding of the background of some of our mutual problems we could not intelligently arrive at the proper solutions. I hope to be able to show in this paper what some of our problems are, what has been done in the past, and what can be done in the future that can bring the craft and the profession into closer harmony.

During the past year the Prosthetic Dental Service Committee of the Illinois State Dental Society has had regular meetings with the Laboratory-Dentist Relations Committee of the Illinois Dental Laboratory Association. I would like to compliment your association for the quality of men that you have sent to meet with us as they have been fine, intelligent and cooperative men who have in their hearts the best interests of your group, the profession, and the public at large. It has been a pleasure to meet and know such men as Jess Porter, Kermit Ericson, Ed Grimes, Harry Ditter, Linn Cruse; your last year's president, William McInnes; this year's president, Joe Kennedy, and your Executive Secretary, Ed Mauter.

Many hours of discussion have taken place on such problems as accreditation of dental laboratories, annual registration of dentists and of laboratories or technicians, work authorization orders to accompany work sent to the laboratory, referral of patients to the laboratory by dentists, quick repairs that can be done in the dental office, joint meetings between the craft and the profession, joint editorship of a page in the Illinois Dental Journal, educational letters to be sent out to the profession and the craft, and current developments in the lawsuit of the Chicago Dental Society against illegal laboratory operators.

Some of these items could stand a little amplification at this time. For example, the Chicago lawsuit has taken five years and many thousands of dollars to bring to a successful conclusion. Judge Padden has upheld the findings of Master-in-Chancery Righeimer and will sign the decree as soon as the final briefs have been prepared according to his most recent recommendations. We expect this will no doubt be appealed to the Illinois Supreme Court and will take another six months before a decision is handed down there. There were originally 32 defendants in this suit which has been heard before three judges in the Superior Court of Cook County, has gone through an extensive Master-in-Chancery hearing in which approximately 3,500 pages of testimony were taken. Judge Padden's recent ruling in favor of the Chicago Dental Society was in regard to 21 of the original defendants. The others have either died, gone out of business, were given consent decrees when they refused to fight the charges, or in a couple of cases were dismissed from the suit because of the lack of sufficient evidence against them. The injunction proceedings type of plea was made in this suit and if any of these laboratories then repeat any of their misdemeanors they may be summarily haled into court under contempt of court proceedings and quickly fined or imprisoned.

There has been a page in the monthly Illinois Dental Journal devoted to unity between the craft and the profession which is called the "Dentist-Laboratory Chats" page, which has been written by various members of the craft and the profession. Since I wrote the page that appeared in the current March 1955 issue *Presented at the State Meeting of the Illinois Dental Laboratory Association in Galesburg, Illinois on April 16.

**Chairman of the Illinois State Prosthetic Dental Service Committee.

and since many of you have not yet had the opportunity of reading it, I would like to quote from it now just to show what type of material is being presented therein. The current issue is devoted to the senior dental students who will soon be starting their professional practice and was beamed directly at them, but is certainly applicable to all members of the profession. Titled "The Recent Graduate Chooses a Dental Laboratory—and His Responsibilities in Doing So."

"When the dental student graduates and starts to practice dentistry as a professional man, one of his first problems is the selection of the dental laboratory he will patronize. Of course, his colleagues already in practice will be able to come up with suggestions, since they will no doubt have had pleasant dealings with several ethical laboratories.

"The recent graduate, however, should do some investigating on his own behalf. For example, an inspection visit wherein he visits the laboratory and talks to the owner is a good idea. He should find out what equipment is available and just what types of work the laboratory can do. Perhaps it is a big organization capable of doing most types of work—dentures—bridges—ceramics, etc. The owner will take pleasure in showing his modern equipment and methods. Many good smaller laboratories are also available, some of them specializing in only one phase of dentistry.

"It would also be a good idea to check with the local dental society executive offices as to the ethical standing of the laboratory. It could be embarrassing indeed for the new practitioner to discover later that he was dealing with an unethical laboratory.

"Much of the modern dental laboratory's equipment is far too expensive to have in the dental office where it would be used only at infrequent intervals. It is, however, always available to the dentist through the services rendered by the dental laboratory.

"Once the laboratory has been decided upon, the recent graduate should realize that he has certain responsibilities to observe. He should give complete instructions to the laboratory. Don't expect them to be mind readers. Remember that the laboratory man is working with casts and models and never sees the patient. Be sure to mark with pencil the outline of a denture on the cast, together with other pertinent information as to clasps and positioning of teeth. Recordings of high and low lip lines and median line markings are important, and be sure to send the proper shade selections.

"The recent graduate, in fact every dentist, should learn to do immediate repairs in his own office. This not only saves time for the patient, but also relieves the laboratory of those annoying interruptions which disrupt their schedule. Too often in the past, patients needing quick repairs have been driven into the hands of the unethical lab operator because of the lack of cooperation on the part of the profession. The next time such a patient requires denture service he immediately thinks of this same unethical laboratory operator.

"Your laboratory relationship will be a successful one if you will observe these rules:

1. Give the laboratory clear, accurate impressions.
  2. Give them detailed instructions as to what you want.
  3. Give them the time necessary to do the quality of work you desire of them.
  4. Pay them a fair price for these services. In return you can demand both good workmanship and good service.
  5. Pay your laboratory bills promptly so that your laboratory man can meet his expenses and payroll promptly.
  6. Never, under any circumstances, refer a patient to your dental laboratory.
- "Finally, choose your dental laboratory with care. Use your dental laboratory as a valuable adjunct to enable you to render a better service to your patients."

Coming up in the next issue of the Journal will be an article prepared by your President, Joe Kennedy. Also in the following issue which is the Golden Anniversary Issue of the Journal, Ed

Mauter will prepare a history of your association showing its growth and service to the profession during the past years.

As a further example of unity, at the January 18th, 1955 meeting of the Chicago Dental Society, the laboratory owners and their technicians were invited to meet with us. The speaker of the evening was Paul A. Slone, the Executive Secretary of the National Association of Dental Laboratories, and this very fine speech was followed by table demonstrations put on by technicians. It has recently been brought to my attention that other states have picked up this idea and are following the example we have started.

For the past two Midwinter Meetings of the Chicago Dental Society we have had demonstrations showing how quick acrylic repairs can be done in the dental office. Representatives from the three dental schools in Chicago have manned these demonstrations and the interest on the part of the profession has been high.

As a result of recommendations made from our joint meetings it will soon be added to the code of ethics of the Illinois State Dental Society that it shall be unethical for a dentist to refer a patient to a dental laboratory for any reason whatsoever.

Work authorization orders to accompany all work sent to the laboratory will no doubt be used in the future. Work is now being done to try to draw up some forms which might be used for this, but it may have to await a re-opening of the Dental Practice Act before it may be made official. Work authorization forms usually are made out in duplicate with the original going to the laboratory along with the case, and the duplicate being retained by the dentist; in each instance a time limit for keeping these records is specified and usually runs from one to three years. This not only allows the law enforcement officers to check up on illegal laboratory operations, but should also be a great help to the laboratory because the dentist would have to give complete instructions instead of just using the old bromide "call me about this." The failure of a dental laboratory to have written authorizations for the work being performed in the laboratory could be fixed as a violation of the law. And failure for the dentist to issue work orders could result in suspension or revocation of his license.

These then are some of the examples of unity which in the past have been accomplished between the craft and the profession. For the immediate future it is planned to invite representatives of the dental trades and manufacturing groups to meet with us and we hope to assemble information as to where the illegal operators are buying their teeth and supplies and whether there is any chance of drying up their sources of supply. We will keep working on this matter and perhaps this may get assistance from the national level. Since we started making plans for our first meeting with the dental trades and manufacturers, the American Dental Association has become interested, and tomorrow, April 17th, when the A.D.A. Council meets in Chicago they have included some of these thoughts in their agenda and some helpful information may come out of that meeting.

Many of you may have read in the papers in the past week or two that the Chicago Dental Society is instituting a post-payment or dental budget plan. It is thought that this might even have a place in the fight against illegal laboratories. Some people might have found themselves in a tight financial position and have been unable to raise the necessary funds to have their prosthetic appliances done in a dental office, but could manage the price for some of the second-rate work of the black market operators. Now, since they know that they can buy dentistry on a budget plan as they would an electric appliance, a TV set, or an automobile, they may be more anxious to get the best service possible.

The charter objective of the dental society is "to encourage the improvement of the health of the public and to promote the art and science of dentistry."

The charter objectives of your laboratory associations are to "uphold the dignity and honor of the dental laboratory craft, advance its standards, foster cooperation among its members, and extend its service to the dental profession by promoting and effecting a mutual confidence."

These are normal, natural, and commendable objectives. However in carrying them out we find that there are many problems that present themselves.

Regardless of the number of these problems, the primary problem always comes out to the same answer—illegal dentistry. It takes income from the profession—it takes income from the ethical laboratories. When something hits the pocketbook a telling blow it becomes of paramount interest to all parties concerned.

We must give thought to this problem because we can't turn our tails to an enemy as if pretending that a menace unseen does not exist.

Just how do these so-called bush-whackers get into this field? They must have had some training, either in the Armed Forces or as technicians in an ethical laboratory. Then the idea of making more money by eliminating the dentist entirely from the picture, prompts them to start dealing directly with the public. Since there is a bit of larceny in all men's souls, a segment of the public will go for this for the simple fact that they are saving money. If by continued patronage of these places, the public should start getting the impression that they are "prosthetic specialists" who are "experts in their field" then a chaotic situation could result.

But the illegal operator is not the only fly in the ointment. You know, for example, that you have some bad actors in your ranks, and I readily admit that there are some dentists who are guilty of conduct that is far from exemplary. We can't make a big issue of isolated cases, but perhaps we can mention a few examples which illustrate my point. There are many instances of a technician going into business for himself in the basement of his home where he has practically no overhead, uses cheap or shoddy materials, and effectively undercuts the prices which must be charged by a reputable, well-equipped laboratory. This character often starts out by doing cheap work for dentists, and indeed there is larceny in the souls of some dentists also when they believe that they can use such shoddy appliances and still get a justified fee from the patient for their services. All too often the basement operator slides over to the illegal side of the picture and becomes a party to the act of black market dentistry. This then becomes a problem for both the craft and the profession. To the craft because this technician probably does not belong to the laboratory association and is doing nothing to advance the standing of the craft, in fact he is undermining the ethical operator. And to the profession because it takes a great deal of education to our members to get them to patronize only ethical laboratories of high standards. But we are trying, and I refer you to the Dentist-Laboratory Chats page of the Illinois Journal which I quoted earlier as an example of the type of education that we will keep plugging at.

It also has been brought to my attention that some dentists in Illinois are sending models for cast cases to cut price laboratories in the New York area even though they use their local laboratories for rush repairs and less remunerative small jobs. Again this is one of our problems which we in the profession will have to work out through education of our members.

In this great country of ours there are more than 6,000 dental laboratories. Almost all of them conduct their businesses ethically and legitimately with the earnest desire to serve only the dental profession. But there are a number of unscrupulous operators who pose a threat to the health of the public. The lay person who seeks the services of an illegal operator is willing to accept these services as a substitute for the professional arts and skills of the profession.

We should strive to get a better job of enforcement of the existing laws which should control such practices. It has been the supposition in the past that violation of the dental practice act is a crime, and therefore should be dealt with in the courts as a crime or felony. The person who accepts the services of a dental laboratory is supposedly the victim of a crime. Yet most persons never complain of being victimized in this regard, in fact it often is difficult to get them to testify when such testimony would aid in court cases. He has accepted the laboratory services because he thought he was getting a bargain.

If a paid investigator is sent in to pose as a patron and then appears in court against the operator, the defense claims "entrapment" and usually gets off with a light fine or suspended sentence.

In the opinion of Mr. Conway of the American Dental Association legal department, there is a possible solution to this problem of enforcement if we would change the legal attack from one of criminal nature to one of declaring it to be a public nuisance. In other words the illegal operator is posing a threat to the health of the community and the courts of equity could be more apt to recognize and restrain such acts as a public nuisance than as a criminal act. It is possible under the Illinois Dental Practice Act to place proven violators under injunction or restraint and each successive violation by the offender is considered a breach of the order of restraint and may be punished by fine or imprisonment as a contempt of court. It is also much easier to start such actions quickly and have them disposed of more readily than criminal proceedings.

The law enforcement officers of our state have largely been apathetic toward violators of the dental practice act because they have not been impressed with the seriousness of the problem. This is another place where joint action between the craft and the profession could help out. Meetings with the law enforcement officers wherein both groups were represented could do much to point out the gravity of the situation, and show our strength in a united front.

We have also found that county judges from outlying Illinois counties who hear cases in Cook County Court are often inadequately informed in these matters. They view the situation primarily as one in which organized dentistry is attempting to throttle and put out of business the dental laboratory owner who is "just trying to make a living." This was pointed up so tragically a year or two ago when a downstate judge was hearing a case in circuit court. A lab operator had admitted taking impressions for a customer and making and delivering a denture. In cross examination the attorney for the defendant asked him where the impressions had been taken and the answer was that they were taken in a chair in the laboratory. Then he was asked if it was a dental chair, and he answered that it was just a common kitchen chair. Whereupon the attorney turned to the judge and claimed that it couldn't have been a dental impression because the defendant wasn't using a dentist's chair. And the judge dismissed the case on these grounds despite the efforts of the state's attorney to show that the Dental Practice Act doesn't specify what type of chair or equipment a dentist must use, but certainly does specify who can take impressions and construct and place prosthetic appliances.

Up to this point law enforcement has served only as a possible control, but has not eliminated the illegal practice of dentistry. I wonder if there might be another method of approaching this problem. Perhaps the public can be taught to understand and appreciate the need for relying upon the professional arts and skills of the dentist as a healthy necessity in the supplying of prosthetic dental appliances. You and I believe that whenever any type of oral care is indicated whether it be operative, surgical, or prosthetic, there is no substitute for the professional services of a dentist. Do you think it would be an impossible task to spread this same idea through to the general public? True, it would be a tremendous job of education but we have

One-Day Course on Periodontal Disease Offered by Michael Reese

On Wednesday, September 28, 1955, the Educational Committee of the Dental Staff of Michael Reese Hospital is offering a one day course on "Clinical Treatment in Periodontal Disease." The course is open to members of the Dental Staff of Michael Reese Hospital and members of the Chicago Dental Society.

This course will be especially valuable to the general practitioner, because it follows through from examination and diagnosis of clinical cases to practically all available methods of treatment. The day's program in detail follows:

9:00—10:00	Periodontal Treatment Without Tissue Excision	Dr. Robert Kesel
10:00—11:00	Gingivectomy	Dr. Leo Sreebny
11:00—12:00	Use of Appliances in Periodontal Therapy	Dr. Bennett Klavan
12:00— 1:30	LUNCH
1:30— 2:30	Equilibration of Occlusion	Dr. Saul Levy
2:30— 4:30	Examination and Diagnosis of Clinical Cases (In groups of eight)	Dr. Robert Kesel Dr. Bennett Klavan Dr. Saul Levy Dr. Leo Sreebny

SOUTH SUBURBAN

If you guys wondered why we did not have a column in the last issue, I have two plausible answers—one is that I took a little time off from the office to spend a few days down at Brown County State Park in southern Indiana and then went on to see how smoky the Smoky Mountains of Tennessee really are. It kind of gives a guy claustrophobia getting back to the office after seeing all the majesty and grandeur of the high hills and the big mountains. . . . Got a card from Len Holt to the effect that he and Mrs. Holt are enjoying their Florida home and all the nice sunshine that is almost everpresent down thar. . . . Before I go any farther, I for one and I am sure all the rest of you will join me in extending our best wishes to Harold Drummond on the recent marriage of his daughter. . . . The fellows are really going places and doing things this month it seems. Jack Amram is up in Canada; Smiley Simon went north to Minnesota; Henry Cubbon, also homing for cooler weather and some good fishing, went to Canada. . . . Stopping just a little farther south, M. E. Couwenhoven is spending his free time up in Wisconsin. . . . Glenn Eberly just recently returned from a two-week stay and play stint; as also did Harry Lees and W. G. Bierma. . . . S. L. Partyka is our latest do-it-yourself victim. As of this writing, he is out of the office with a wrist cut sustained while doing some woodworking. . . . Flash!! Cupid has struck a mighty blow to one of our eligible members—Fritz Waldschmidt is engaged to be married. To hear first-hand reports of observers of Fritz while a guest at the Drummond wedding it may be that he cannot hold out until the late fall or early winter date of the proposed nuptials. Good luck, boy! . . . At the last count, it seems that there will be quite a delegation from South Suburban attending the ADA convention at San Francisco in September. Among these men will be L. Bettenhausen, Si Tiberi, Pete Iagmin, Jack Amram, Mike Hughes (our VP), and about three others whose names I have not been able to obtain as of this writing. . . . Bill Seidel took his vacation the latter part of July and the first of August so that he could spend his time watching the contractors put up that beautiful new home in Homewood. . . . Looking at the calendar and seeing the big number 1, again, I guess I will wrap this one up and send it off. That's all for now.—H. C. Gornstein, Branch Correspondent.

NORTH SUBURBAN

With most of the boys playing hockey off and on about this time of the year, maybe I can get away with a junior-sized column. Rather out-of-date news is the Northwest Dental Study Club Golf Outing at Biltmore Country Club a month ago, at which about 50 odd and a few semi-odd dental golfers showed up to partake of liquid and solid refreshments and a prize for everyone present, courtesy of Chuck Shaner. This is the way the winners stacked up, I think. Low gross, Harrie Hall with 75; next Jim Wither-spoon and George Kelly with 84; Peoria low net Bob Gullberg and Bill Meek tied with 71; Ole Vangsnes and Frank Powles with 72; Blind Bogey, three tied with 84—Vern Boman, George Kelly and Ed Bonk. . . . Bob Gulberg's non-dentist brother outdid everyone with a hole in one on the 16th. Pretty fine, I'd say. . . . Dick Scott is recovering from an operation on July 11th, and we hope he is back on pork chops soon. . . . In the blessed events dept., Frank Oset was finally presented with his #1—a girl on July 10th. . . . Some new names have moved into this neck of the woods in the last few months. Chester Fijal, recently a Navy man has taken J. D. Pett's practice in Des Plaines, who I understand had to give up drilling for a living because of recurrent procaine dermatitis. Also another new arrival in Des Plaines is Ben Vinikour with a Lee Street address. . . . Geo. (the farmer) Carey played host recently to the Park Ridge Kiwanis Club with a Wed. afternoon barbecue outing for members and guests at his 280-acre farm near Woodstock. "Real George" place—I was there. . . . Randy Willoughby tells me he did a quick long weekender fishin' with whole family aboard at Iron Mt., Michigan, not too many days ago, and Dave Grauer is headin' all the way West soon via auto for the complete circuit. . . . That's all the news I could get my hands on.—Russ Ephland, 2nd String Correspondent.

WEST SIDE

The following telegram was sent by our Secretary, Irv Shaewitz, to the members of the Senate Finance Committee, Senate Office Building, Washington, D. C.: "As Secretary of the West Side Branch of the Chicago Dental Society I have been instructed by a unanimous vote of over 400 members to urge that you take positive action immediately to include dentists in Old Age Survivors Insurance." State polls everywhere bear out our desire. The majority of the nation's dentists need your support on Dental Old Age Survivors Insurance legislation. Irv has been contacting and receiving correspondence, mostly favorable and sympathetic responses, from the members of the Senate Finance Committee which is the committee responsible for affirmative dental participation in O.A.S.I. being sent to the floor of the Senate. . . . Mark down on your calendar now the first Branch meeting in October. Our guest speaker, obtained by Program Chairman Max Chubin, is a very prominent clinician and teacher, Dr. Arthur Elfenbaum, Professor of Oral Diagnosis at Northwestern University. It promises to be a very interesting and informative meeting. . . . With most of the boys on their vacations, either coming or going, there isn't too much news. All the fish stories will have to hold until our first meeting.—Victor Ganz, Branch Correspondent.

KENWOOD-HYDE PARK

It's only a month away now—What is?—Why the Loyola Alumni Golf Outing, of course. As before, it will be held at the Glendale Country Club, on September 14th. Better make your reservations as soon as possible. . . . Ben Herzberg took his sister to New York, to see her off on a long tour and then Ben is coming right back. . . . While most of us have been enjoying the summer leisure months and forgetting about ole Kenwood-Hyde Park, Rudy Grieff and his program committee have been diligently working on a terrific program for next season. Because of the success of Mark Reardon's idea of having a full-year's program on full dentures, Rudy has decided to follow through this year with the same type of program, but this year it will be devoted to operative dentistry and its various phases. This should prove to be a very interesting series of meetings. I've had a preview of the things to come and they will be mighty informative. Your attendance will make all of this work successful. So why not call Henry Leib now, I'm sure he still has a few season dinner tickets left. . . . Bob Pinkerton cramming all of his work into a short week so that he can spend those long weekends at the Villa in Lake Geneva. . . . Graham Davies took off for Spooner to take another crack at that big one that always gets away. . . . With Leo Mastorakos just back from a fishing trip and Graham on his way, the boys on 55th Street ought to have quite an array of fish stories to contend with. . . . Seymour Yale has been appointed associate professor and head of the department of radiology over at Illinois. Seymour is still in the Navy at the U. S. Naval Technicians School in Bainbridge, Md. and won't be home until February. Congratulations, Seymour. . . . The honorary degree of Doctor of Anatomy was recently conferred on Alex Jacobson by the University of Pennsylvania during its Commencement program. Dr. Jacobson was the principle speaker on the program. . . . In addition to being Secretary of the Chicago Dental Society, Walt Dundon is also Chairman of the A.D.A. Council on Dental Trade and Laboratory Relations. In this capacity, Walt has made a couple of trips to Washington concerning the proposed fair trade practice rules for the Commercial Dental Laboratory Industry. . . . Rudy Grieff had many favorable comments to make in regard to the Chicago Dental Society and Branch Officers meeting held a month ago. The purpose of the meeting was to familiarize the branch members, through their officers, of the many opportunities offered to the members of the Society if they want to avail themselves of these opportunities. They also formulated a plan of interesting the graduating seniors in the workings of the Society by having them visit the central office escorted by one or more of the officers, and the branch to follow through by getting these young men interested in the workings of their branch society. Rudy was very enthused about this type of meeting which allows the exchange of ideas between the officers of the parent society and the branch. . . . Don't hesitate to call with a bit of news.—Howard J. Harvey, Branch Correspondent.

NEWS OF THE BRANCHES

NORTHWEST SIDE

Well, even Kup hits the wrong key on his typewriter once in a while, so now I atone—membership in the Chicago Dental Society as of July 25 was 3,465 out of approximately 4,500 dentists in the Chicago area, and I certainly feel much better reporting that percentage rather than my original copy; and (yes, two mistakes in one short column) it seems that Thad Weclaw, not Vic, is the president of the Academy of General Dentistry. No more typing in the sun for me. . . . LaMar Harris recently passed an examination given by the American Board of Prosthodontics and is now a "Diplomate," which means that he can be a denture specialist if he wishes to limit his practice. . . . J. D. Mershimer and his family, including his son Leonard home on leave from Fort Benning, are vacationing in the Wisconsin North Woods—it must be cooler there. . . . The Stan Brzezinski's now have a son to keep their daughter company, born July 16. . . . And, it is entirely too hot to bother people on the telephone or to even make up stories, so I bid you adieu.—Lee Schwartz, Branch Correspondent.

WEST SUBURBAN

Summer Thoughts: Lots of fellows and girls have hobbies. Saw one on gardening recently—"The best way to get real enjoyment out of a garden is to put on a wide straw hat, dress in loose-fitting clothes, hold a garden trowel in one hand, then pick up a cool drink in the other hand and tell your wife where to dig." . . . Some folks play at other games such as Bill Vopata who played war with the 33rd Div. at their summer maneuvers. Stan Tylman was out there at Camp Ripley too. . . . Riley Crane had the summer almost spoiled for him. Vandals nearly wrecked his sloop at Montrose harbor. . . . Out in Lombard they say Doug Browning takes the most vacations. He's off again for Michigan. . . . Les Braun had a grand time in cool Canada. . . . Arno Brett's still celebrating birthdays with a barbecue party, good food, fine friends (many dentists) and a good time had by all. . . . Jones of Riverside has the best salesmen. Bob Wirth came in to sell me a ticket for the West Suburban Branch's Dinner meetings starting Tues., Oct. 11th. The ticket is a bargain at $18.00 for the five meetings at Riverside Country Club. LeRoy Sanden and Co. of the Program Committee have the essayists all lined up. They are tops. . . . Called the Chicago-Austin Bldg. for news and found Joe Voita away in Michigan with Carl Mitchell on an extended trip and Earl Crawshaw closed by the heat. . . . Wedding bells for George M. Chott and Audrey L. Michael who are spending their honeymoon days in Florida before George reports for duty with Uncle Sam's services. Our Very Best Wishes to the bride and groom. . . . Earl Emery, Rolland Mathews, and Len Shimandle are over in Michigan again. . . . Another birthday note came our way. Al Ryan received seven fingernail files recently for his "Day." Says he's up to his elbows by now. . . . Anthony Malone and Tom Barber are both away. Tony to the Ozarks and Tom to Mich. . . . Dave Thompson spent a few weeks in Florida with the Page Foundation studying Body Chemistry and Endocrines. He's leaving soon for Denver for the Summer Seminar. Wonder when he bends wires? . . . Arnold Anderson and Frank Olson are still struggling to educate the golf ball at La Grange Country Club. The boys will soon find out those pills are dumb. . . . Ken Lambert has a job as Program Chairman of the La Grange Kiwanis. . . . Want to buy a house? Bob Randolph will guarantee it's a good one but it may do things to your family. He lived in it so long, the family increased so much he had to move. . . . Maybe John Poronsky will have one of those experiences soon. Cigars are ordered but the day hasn't arrived as yet. . . . Our Branch now has addressograph plates for the announcements. Keep your address up-to-date with a note to Howard Buchner. . . . Mr. Sec'y. is vacationing at his air-conditioned home in River Forest. . . . Our Pres. Dick Anderson is out at Jackson Hole for a vacation with his family. Hopes to land in Idaho Falls for a few days with friends. . . . The Branch has made a donation to the American Friends Service Commission in memory of Beulah Nelson. This worthwhile organization was one of her favorites. . . . Al Macaluso has the first Round Table program lined up. It's Earl Pounds' film on Esthetic and Phonetic Denture Construction. They'll meet on Monday noon, Oct. 3rd, at the Oak Park Club. . . . A Reminder: Did you check off Wed., Sept. 14th, for the Loyola Golf Outing? Do it NOW. Send in your reservation for FUN, Food, Golf and the largest group of Prizes—Cost Golf and Dinner: $8.00—Refreshments at the 6th hole and Prizes FREE. . . . Hear that Mary Newell of the Englewood Branch plays golf like Patty Berg. Florence Lilley is taking lessons at Elmhurst to give her some competition. . . . Fred Schulz has sold his home in Dundee but he's not walking the streets of Elmhurst. Bill Murphy heard Wisconsin calling in this hot weather so he's off again. . . . LeRoy Sanden and Mrs. Sanden and three lovely daughters are vacationing at Lake Winnepeg in Canada. . . . Walter Wicklund is going to Europe on the profits from tips received from his son who is with a brokerage house. He gave him a fine education. . . . I hear that down in Harvey's Hollow (Kenwood) it hasn't rained in so long that the Baptists are sprinkling, the Methodists are using a damp cloth and the Presbyterians are issuing rain checks. Keep Kool Kids.—Bob Pollock, Branch Correspondent.

NORTH SIDE

Our President, Herb Gustavson, held an enlarged Board meeting, including all the newly appointed Committee Chairmen and Vice Chairmen, at his home on July 26th. In spite of the very hot and humid weather, there was almost 100 per cent attendance. Many of the committees have already started off with a bang and are doing a terrific job. Just to mention a few: Paul Brown of the Ethics Com. has done some outstanding work in straightening out problems arising out of violations of ethics and has won the respect and acclaim of the members he served. He reports that in his "short experience as Chairman of the N. S. Ethics Com." he has, "met many breeches of ethics of the Chicago Dental Society's Code of Ethics. The most common of these, is the use of too numerous signs.

The ruling states that two signs are permitted on each exposure, with one door or wall sign at the entrance—not to exceed 5 signs in all.” It is well to be aware of this. Paul’s wife is in Florida and he is ‘batching it.’ Bob Margolis, his Vice Chair., was present also and promises to be a very valuable addition to the committee. . . . Art Duxler, of the Clinic Day Com., reports that the basic groundwork and planning is complete and he is appointing his sub-chairmen and their committees. He and his Vice Chairman, Allen Gerber, have many new innovations planned which will insure one of the best Clinic Days ever held. This column will print its progress from time to time. Allen is also on the Dental Health & Education Com. and has many plans already set in motion. . . . The Sports Com. reports that next year’s Golf Outing is set—bigger and better. . . . The Dinner Com. Chairman, Ernie Gillis, with Cliff Alsin, are doing an outstanding job in arranging for much better meals that will tempt the appetites of the best gourmets, at a cost, for the season tickets, of less than can be purchased by the individual. These season tickets will be sold to cover any 4 out of the 5 regularly scheduled meetings including the Clinic Day Luncheon. These dinners will be very attractive and together with Bill Semiloff’s and Stan Goldberg’s Program Committee’s plans for excellent programs, we can be sure to double our attendance at our meetings. . . . Joel John has already started to dig in to the job of Law Enforcement, and we can expect big things from him. . . . Our Downtown Director, Earl Elman, reports that as a result of this column’s suggestion that anyone desiring additional financial information could contact him, Earl has been literally swamped with calls requesting information, particularly with most of the members asking why the CDS does not publish, regularly, financial statements so that the membership can know how their money is being spent. Earl has confessed that he has been unable to answer this. However, upon his taking up the matter with the CDS President, Gus Solfronk suggested that anyone wishing to see the financial statements, could do so by coming into the office—and that anyone requesting the publishing of these statements should request it in writing and the Board will act on it. . . . All committee chairmen are asked to complete the selection of their committees immediately. Anyone interested in serving on any committee, is more than welcome. Contact the respective Chairmen, as listed in this column in the July 1st issue. . . . We are happy to announce that Henry Handelman is home from his long stay in the hospital, almost fully recovered from a heart attack, and also that Mrs. Bill Semiloff is home and feeling much better. . . . Harold Galvin is now in his new bungalow office on Peterson. . . . Hal Sitron is a week-end commuter to and from Union Pier, leaving Fridays and coming back on Mondays—your scribe also—to and from Wilson, Ind. . . . Joe Chulock will visit his son, Wally, soon, in L. A. Is he proud of him! Wally was recently made manager of the big TV stations there. Joe’s brother Aaron, who is retired and is living in Fla. reports his wife is quite ill. Joe has done a terrific job for OASI. He helped organize a meeting of dentists in the Conference Room of the Pittsfield Bldg. at which Frank Hurlstone, the Chairman of the Chicago Component of ‘Dentists for OASI,’ gave a very comprehensive talk and mobilized a number of dentists to write their senators to pass the Social Security Bill. Joe is quite let down by the possibility that the bill will be shelved until next year, but promises to continue a vigorous campaign until it is finally approved. . . . Morton Gorchow has been demobilized and is back in practice at the old stand. Mort says ‘Hello’ to everybody and says that it’s wonderful to be home to stay. He was particularly impressed with the large quantity of excellent dentistry that was turned out by the Dental Unit at Ft. Leonard Wood, Mo., and says that a real concerted effort is made to put as many GI mouths as possible in healthy shape. . . . Let us all rejoice with Isadore Jacobson in the the aid of a new form of education beamed at the general public now. Dentistry's attempts at doing good have been often criticized as being haphazard, but in the past year we have come up with a gem, the TV Dental Clinic. Since you and I are both laboring during the daytime hours and therefore don't have much time for TV during the day, this program could easily escape our attention. In my case, however, I am a member of the Dental Health Education Committee of the Chicago Dental Society and the chairman of the sub-committee on radio and TV education. Therefore I am familiar with this program and the terrific job it is doing.

It is presented daily Monday through Friday from 2:15 to 2:30 over Channel 7. Dr. Mortimer Neimark, the director of TV Dental Clinic, is a member of the Chicago Dental Society and a member of the Kenwood-Hyde Park Branch.

The format of the show has usually a patient, a visiting guest dentist, and Dr. Neimark the director. Equipment is furnished by the S. S. White Dental Mfg. Co.

Some phase of dentistry is discussed with the guest dentist each day and the public is directed to visit their dentist and have their teeth checked.

The public is also invited to send in questions concerning their dental health and since I have been on the committee which has had to answer these questions

I can assure you that the questions have been arriving in droves. We are now getting more than 600 inquiries a month. They run the gamut from the ridiculous to the sublime, but the important fact is that it is carrying dentistry's message to the far corners. If what I am told is true, that only one listener in a hundred will take the time to write a letter, and if we are getting 600 letters a month, then some 600,000 people a month are listening to the repeated admonition to see their dentist and check up on their dental needs. This should bring many patients into the dental offices and in turn should result in many cases for the dental laboratories in this area.

Perhaps you might be interested in a box score of some illegal operations which have been tabulated by Mr. Edgar T. Stephens of the Chicago Dental Society Staff.

There are 137 known illegal dental laboratories in and about Chicago—19 of these, under various names, belong to one individual.

There are 5 known situations in which dental technicians go to people's homes, take the impressions, return to their laboratories, make the dentures, and deliver and fit them in the customer's home.

And let me make clear the fact that we are not disregarding the dentists who have contributed to the critical situation by willingly aiding the laboratory offenders to serve the public. During the past year in the Chicago area, 7 dentists have had their licenses revoked, 2 have received 30-day suspensions of their licenses, and one was dismissed after pleading guilty and throwing himself on the mercy of the State Board of Dental Examiners as a result of these dentists activities in association with illegal laboratory operations. Currently there are cases being brought against 9 more dentists.

The American Dental Association Council on Dental Laboratories and Trade Relations, whose chairman is Dr. Walter Dundon of Chicago, has started cracking down on mail order denture laboratories operating in the Chicago area and both of our groups will be asked in the near future to aid them in this endeavor. Chicago seems to be the headquarters of this nefarious business although it is a nationwide problem. There is a federal act, the Traynor Act, which applies to the operations of mail order dental laboratories but making this act effective can be a long and difficult problem. Over 50 national publications carry advertisements of these laboratories and they are drawing business from every state, as well as from some foreign countries. We know of seven mail order dental laboratories operating in the Chicago area.

Some thought is being given to the possibility of eliminating the phrase "dental laboratory" in referring to your places of business. Perhaps even in your names you are inadvertently attracting the public's attention. In a recent membership list of the Illinois Dental Laboratory Association, I checked and found that in a listing of well over a hundred names they almost invariably contain the phrase —dental laboratory. There were a few exceptions as I noticed that in Chicago Arch Evans, for example, calls his business "Arch Evans Prosthetic Technicians" and Joe Kennedy operates as "Joseph E. Kennedy Co." In each of these cases no reference is made to the phrase "dental laboratory" at all. This thought is not original with me but it certainly has been kicking around in my thoughts for the past several months, and perhaps it might strike a bell with some of you.

Too many people have been focusing their attention on the Chicago Dental Society lawsuit and have not been aware of the every day job of law enforcement that is being accomplished in the courts. In the past eight months, fourteen labs have been hailed into court. Five of these cases have been completed and the balance are pending court action. In the completed cases, the operators have received $200.00 fines and a jail sentence of one year, with the jail sentence being suspended when the operators promise to get out of the business and stay out. These people will be watched and if they slip back into their previous guilty habits they will be hailed into court and will serve their jail sentence.

Attempts to control the illegal laboratory operations must have cooperation from all persons and all organizations which are interested. Members of your laboratory association have not contributed too heavily in the past in these efforts, primarily because you have not been asked to assume a large part of this burden. No requests for financial assistance have been made of you up to this time, but there may be some in the future. However, there is much that can be done now by your organization in helping in this cause. The help you can give is largely in the field of turning in information, even evidence and witnesses names so that charges can be brought against violators. If you have any information at all see that it is given to your Executive Secretary Ed Mauter and he will know what to do with it from that point. I would think that you would have many opportunities to gather information. You have manufacturer's representatives calling on you who also call on illegal laboratories. In many instances they have information they could give to you about these operations. You also have employees who change their places of employment and in some instances have worked for illegal operators. Draw them out and get their stories. You will even from time to time know of dentists who have worked with these illegal operators or who have arrangements whereby patients are sent back and forth from laboratory to dentist. We want all such information. Information can be given to Dr. Paul Clopper, Peoria, Ill., the state secretary; to the Chicago Dental Society office, 30 N. Michigan; or if you do not wish to identify yourself to the Dental Society then give it to your own secretary, Ed Mauter.

Your officers and board of directors have developed a prospective program for your organization for this year that is highly commendable. But in your program there is lacking one very important step. That is unity within your own ranks. A matter of a few days ago some of the labs in the Chicago area broke away from your organization and formed a rump organization of their own. The resulting disunity has been embarrassing in working out many of our problems.

There is now something in the planning stage that you might be interested in. There is talk in Illinois of a commission to correlate the activities of the Prosthetic Dental Service Committee, the Public Policy committee, the Infraction of Laws Committee, and to work with all levels of the dental society organization, national, state and local. I would like to see two members of your organization appointed to this commission as advisors or as observers, because your organization should have an active interest in such procedures.

In conclusion, permit me to say that unity comes with understanding and understanding only is successful when one person is willing to consider the problems of the other fellow from the other fellow's side of the picture. We must all keep our minds open and receptive to each other's viewpoints. Finally we must desire unity, and want to do everything in our power to see it materialize. I hope that my visit here today may illustrate my desire to build good will, respect and unity between your association and my profession.

supervisors, school health nurses, health teachers and local dentists, she was able to provide a very excellent program of dental health education. She set up and arranged for the periodic dental inspections, arranged for the dentists who were to inspect, provided the dental health kit of the Society to health teachers, and often showed the films. She also sat in on the planning sessions of the various health groups. Over and above this she also supervised the dental diagnostic service which we furnish industry.

We will sincerely miss her for she has provided real leadership in the field of dental health education, established excellent public relations with the many school boards, supervisors, health nurses and teachers as well as members of the Society. To Nora Walter the grateful appreciation of the Society and the many communities that you have served so well. Well done and every good wish for many years of good health and happiness to you and Mr. Walter in your new home in Iowa. Good luck!

Mrs. Carnes, who was Mr. Edgar Stephens' secretary and maid-of-all-work, had been in the employ of the Society in a part and full-time capacity for the last eight years. In addition to her work with the Committee on Dental Health Education she gave invaluable assistance to the Exhibit Registration Committee during the Midwinter Meetings and did most of the preliminary work for registering exhibitors and guests. Also at Midwinter Meeting time she helped out in the thousand and one tasks which attend its preparation. Although seen very little, she was always ready to step in and do the things which needed doing. For her loyal, courteous, and devoted service we are most grateful. Our best wishes for all that is good go with her to her new position at the University of Chicago. May good health and happiness be the Carnes' for many years to come. Good luck!

Aficionados of the table clinics will have wondered by now where these will take place if the Grand Ballroom is out for Tuesday afternoon. It is planned to have the same number of clinics as usual—roughly 75 or 80—but to present just one-third of them at a time and probably in the north two sections of the Williford Room on the Third Floor of the hotel. All such matters entail many closely coordinated shifts in planning and Dr. Wenger, Dr. Adolph Stark, Program Chairman, Dr. Humphrey, Dr. Solfronk and the other men working on the meeting have already invested many long hours in earnest effort devoted to making this Midwinter Meeting the best ever. The dividends of their investment are available to all our members—plan now to profit by attending the meeting.

July, held at Allerton, Ill. Mrs. Schoen accompanied her husband. . . . Henry Parkin reports: Fred Weitz and A. J. Shapiro just opened an 18-chair office in a specially built dental building at Peterson and Christiana. Adelman is the Oral Surgeon and Herb Gordon, the Orthodontist; and a full-time anesthesiologist. Good luck, fellows. . . . Joe Ambrose is off for 2 weeks to visit his mother; Paul Dolin left for 2 weeks 'Vacation' with the Air Force Reserves at Randolph Field, as a flyer. Henry Parkin's car sure is jinxed. A 10-ton truck rammed into it while his mother and wife were riding and smashed the fenders and bumper. They are suffering from shock and bruises. You will remember we reported recently that someone stole his car and stripped it even to the wheels. Maybe Hank had better sell it and get another one. . . . Murray Hoffman gave a very good talk at the Uptown Dental Forum's meeting on the use of 'Tubadil' for the control of pain, spasms and edema following the surgical removal of impacted third molars. . . . Don't forget the Loyola Dental Alumni Golf Outing on September 14th. . . . This makes the 6th straight year that Joe Krohn and Red Berk will attend the Midwest Seminar of Dental Medicine at Bailey's Harbor, in Wisconsin, from September 11th to the 15th. Sandy Schaffner, Hank Rosenberg and Leon Rosenfeld, I understand, will also attend. These seminars are really tops and I hope we will all be able to profit from their attendance by learning from them. . . . Frank Hanagan, our Secretary, is working hard trying to cover two offices. He reports the following: Harry Springer, now a Lt. Col., is on the way to a 2-week training jaunt with the Reserves; Irving Krain is leaving for the New England states with his family to see the historic landmarks for about 2½ weeks. He will also visit his relatives in New York; Harry Nehf and Frank Amaturro are both on reserve duty with the Army for a couple of weeks. Frank Amaturro, I hear, has given up his office to assume full time teaching at Loyola. . . . If George Lestina acts especially proud these days, it's because his daughter, Margaret, was graduated with honors in June from New Trier High School and was awarded a scholarship to Radcliffe College. . . . Our hearty congratulations to John H. Richardson on his recent marriage to Mrs. Penelope McKee. The ceremony took place at the home of the bride's sister in Jasper, La., and was followed by a reception, after which the couple left for Chicago. . . . The Ralph C. Cooley Study Club is quiescent during the summer, having last studied new concepts of diet and the effects of diets on the body, with Melvin Page of St. Petersburg, Fla., and L. D. Pankey, also of that state, on Economics. In September, Rube Kadens and Fred Hansen are going to Madison, Wisc., for a seminar on Occlusion. We are sorry to report that Mrs. Kadens is in the hospital for observation, and we hope by now, that she will be out and in perfect health. A new club of 'PBP' has been formed on the North Side, with Al Spiro, Kadens, Sudakoff and Levy representing the NS. The club meets on Mondays and is starting out with a course on salesmanship. The Encyclopedia Britannica is co-operating with many brochures on the subject, and I understand the subject is very fascinating and instructive. . . . Cliff Alsin recently switched to AC and replaced all his equipment. I know, because I can hear the pounding, as his office is directly above mine. . . . I have been called repeatedly, regarding Dan Lynch's article in the July issue of the Illinois Dental Journal, asking how they can "run for office so that they can become delegates," so that they can then vote on issues that the majority of the members want. I don't know the answer. However, I think Dan Lynch should be commended for his excellent article, especially his emphasis on the many new dental health programs now being established under labor-management welfare funds. . . . Carl Sudakoff bought a home in Skokie. It seems we'll have to expand with a few branch-branches in these suburbs. . . . Russ Boothe's assistant, Mrs. Hines, is now one of my official reporters, and reports H. L. Boman and Earl Hullison both are on vacation. . . . Al Drew is out of the hospital and is recuperating very well, with short walks and plenty of rest. I want to thank the many fellows who are calling me with news and keeping this column up-to-date. Lack of space prevents my thanking each of you reporters individually, but keep it up and let's hear from more of you.
